Highfields Receives $8,500 Thanks to Lyman & Sheets Victory in Chubb Charity Challenge
Golf Tournament

Onondaga, MI - December 6, 2017 – Highfields is pleased to announce that Lyman & Sheets represented the organization in the national finals of the annual Chubb Charity Challenge golf tournament on November 17, 2017 in Newport Coast, California.

Lyman & Sheets placed 24th out of 44 teams and received $8,500 toward a charity of their choice, Highfields.

Highfields' President and CEO, Brian Philson, is grateful to Lyman & Sheets for choosing the organization.

“It was an honor to be represented by the Lyman & Sheets team, and to have them do so well while representing Highfields and mid-Michigan was truly outstanding,” said Philson. “We couldn't be prouder!”

Lyman & Sheets advanced to the finals after winning the local qualifying tournament in West Bloomfield in July.

Highfields is a nonprofit human services organization which provides home-based counseling services, residential care, and experiential education and support programs for children, youth, and families in 13 mid-Michigan counties.
