

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact:

Laura Jurasek

Communications and Marketing Specialist

Highfields

517-628-2287 x373 (office)

231-670-3171 (cell)

ljurasek@highfields.org

www.highfields.org

Apply Today For an Aldinger Scholarship from Highfields

Onondaga, Michigan – February 6, 2018 – Highfields is accepting applications for Aldinger Scholarships until Friday, March 16, 2018. Scholarships are awarded for up to $1,500 to individuals who have received services or have a family member who has received services through Highfields.

Qualified individuals include, but are not limited to, Reaching Higher students, Breakthrough course participants, family counseling clients, residential clients, and Ingham Academy students.

The purpose of this fund is to support individuals to pursue educational goals, such as adult education or enrichment programs, college courses, vocational training programs or trade schools.

Highfields' CEO, Brian Philson, said, "Offering Aldinger Scholarships is one way that Highfields provides educational advancement opportunities for the children and families we support."

Highfields will award several scholarships depending on the availability of funds. Each scholarship application will be reviewed by the Endowment Committee and in special circumstances additional funds may be made available. Funds that are approved will be sent directly to the educational institution in the applicants' name.

To apply for a scholarship, please submit an application by Friday, March 16, 2018. The application can be found at: www.highfields.org/resources.

The Aldinger Scholarship was created in 1996 in the name of local philanthropist, John Aldinger. Aldinger was a successful businessman who believed in the power of education. He made generous contributions to Highfields before his death in 1995.

Highfields is a nonprofit human services organization which provides home-based counseling, residential care, and experiential education and support programs for children, youth, and families in 13 mid-Michigan counties. For more information, please visit www.highfields.org.

###