Enjoy an Inspirational Morning at Highfields' Annual Breakfast on October 18th

*Lansing, Michigan – September 18, 2018 – Save the date for Highfields' Annual Strengthening Families Fundraising Breakfast on Thursday, October 18th at the Kellogg Hotel and Conference Center in East Lansing.

The breakfast is free and open to anyone wishing to learn more about Highfields. An RSVP is required.

Two client speakers will share how Highfields is making a difference in their lives.

“Each year, I am amazed by the courage and strength of our clients who speak at the event. They are an inspiration to all of us,” said Brian Philson, CEO/President of Highfields. “It’s a great opportunity to hear about the important work of Highfields’ staff.”

Although the breakfast is free to attend, there will be an opportunity to make a donation. Proceeds from the breakfast will provide counseling and support services for families striving for better futures!

Highfields would like to thank Meijer and Michigan State University Federal Credit Union for sponsoring the event.

Please RSVP by Friday, October 12th to Deanna Rowen at (517) 628-2287 x370 or drowen@highfields.org. You can also RSVP online at www.highfields.org/events.

Highfields is a nonprofit human services organization which provides home-based counseling services, residential care, and experiential education and support programs for about children, youth, and families in 13 mid-Michigan counties.
