

Join Highfields on October 7th at their Strengthening Families Fundraising Breakfast

Lansing, Michigan – September 2, 2021 – Highfields’ Annual Strengthening Families Fundraising Breakfast will take place on Thursday October 7th at the Kellogg Hotel and Conference Center in East Lansing. Registration begins at 7:45am and the program begins at 8:00am.

The 1-hour program will feature client speakers who will share their powerful stories about how their lives were positively affected by Highfields.

“Spend an inspirational morning with us as we celebrate families who have overcome adversities this past year, and changed their lives with the help of Highfields,” said Brian Philson, President and CEO of Highfields.

The breakfast is free to attend although there will be an opportunity to make a donation. Proceeds will go toward children and families in Highfields’ counseling and support programs. Highfields serves thousands of families every year who are struggling with issues like violence, substance abuse and behavioral issues.

An RSVP is required by Friday, October 1st. Guests can RSVP online at www.highfields.org/breakfast2021 or email Laura Jurasek, Highfields’ Fund Development Director, at ljurasek@highfields.org.

*Highfields is a nonprofit human services organization which provides home-based counseling, residential care for young men ages 11-17, and experiential education and support programs for children, youth, and families in 13 mid-Michigan counties.
