Join Highfields on October 11th at their Strengthening Families Fundraising Breakfast

Onondaga, Michigan – September 11, 2023 – Highfields' Annual Strengthening Families Fundraising Breakfast will take place on Wednesday October 11th at the Kellogg Hotel and Conference Center in East Lansing. Registration begins at 7:45am and the program begins at 8:00am.

The 1-hour program will feature client speakers who will share their powerful stories about how their lives were positively affected by Highfields. Highfields' CEO and President Brian Philson will share successes and challenges, and there will be an opportunity to contribute to their work.

"Highfields' Strengthening Families Breakfast is an opportunity for the community to gather and hear the stories of changed lives as well as highlight the work that we do," said Brian. "Please join us as we celebrate our mission."

Proceeds will go toward children and families in Highfields' counseling and support programs. Highfields serves thousands of families every year who are struggling with issues like violence, substance abuse and behavioral issues.

The event is free to attend. An RSVP is required by Wednesday, October 4th. Guests can register online at <https://www.highfields.org/events/breakfast2023/> or email Laura Jurasek, Highfields' Fund Development Director, at ljurasek@highfields.org.

*Highfields is a nonprofit human services organization which provides home-based counseling, residential care for young men ages 11-17, and experiential education and support programs for children, youth, and families in 11 mid-Michigan counties.
